		)

On March 1, 2007, this court held an arraignment. The government was represented by Jane Kirk, Esq., and defendant was present with assisting counsel Rebecca Pennell, Esq.

The defendant was advised of his rights, acknowledged that he understood those rights. The defendant acknowledged receipt of a copy of the indictment, waived reading of the same in open court, and further acknowledged he understood the charges filed against him and the maximum penalties that could be imposed. Defendant signed an acknowledgment of rights. Defendant executed a financial affidavit and requested court appointed counsel. The Federal Public Defender's Office was appointed to represent him in this matter.

The court accepted defendant's plea of not guilty.

The defendant self surrendered today and assured the court that he would appear at all future proceedings.

The Court heard argument from counsel regarding detention.

The government withdrew the motion for detention hearing.

(Ct. Rec. 6)

The government orally moved to quash the warrant. The Court granted the government's motion to quash. (Ct. Rec. 10)
